Purposes and objectives of Mt. Gilead Camp and Conference Center

- To present Christ as Savior and Lord
- To train girls to study and to apply Scripture to their daily lives
- To enable girls to form relationships helpful toward personal growth
- To develop the whole person by providing group and individual experiences
- To prepare girls to contribute to their family, their church, their community, and the world in a Christ-like way
- To develop an appreciation of nature as God's handiwork
- To prepare girls to be comfortable and independent outdoors for the purpose of recreation, personal growth, and leadership

SPIRITUAL PREPARATION:

Submit responses to the following questions on a separate piece of paper.

Returning staff should answer 4, 6, and 7 only.

1. How did you become a Christian?
2. Please share with me your personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
3. Explain in detail how you would lead someone to Christ (include scripture references)
4. What qualities of a leader will the girls see in you this summer?
5. What is your view on the Charismatic Movement? (Mt. Gilead takes no doctrinal stand on this issue, but we feel it is not our place to teach our children controversial doctrine or practice it while ministering to them.)
6. What spiritual lessons has God been teaching you this year? What scripture has God used to teach these lessons?
7. What do you feel are your strengths? How could they contribute to our program? What are your weaknesses? How will you work on these to keep your ministry positive to campers and staff?
8. For those applying for counseling and division director positions—
Counselors and division directors are expected to have a solid understanding of scripture and be able to provide leadership for campers in small group Bible study, bedtime devotions, and informal evening campfire talks. What background and experiences have you had that would facilitate you in these responsibilities?
